

Officer resources

Charities Services webpages

- Governance information for new officers
This page offers resources to help you manage and govern your charity, including a short video for new officers and resource sheets in multiple languages.
- Officer information
Find key information on the roles and responsibilities of charity officers, including certification, personal liability, and rules around disqualified officers.
- Charities' obligations under the law
Charities have legal duties under the Charities Act 2005. This page provides examples and links to resources to help you understand your legal responsibilities as an officer.
- Conflicts of interest
Get guidance on managing conflicts of interest, including how to use a conflict register to track conflicts for board members, employees and volunteers. A downloadable register template is also available.
- Related Party Transactions for Tier 3 and Tier 4 Charities
Charities must report related party transactions. This page provides examples and explains how to properly report these transactions under the reporting standards.

Blogs

- Changes to the definition of officer
The definition of “officer” was updated in 2023. Read this blog to understand what the change means for you.
- The new Trusts Act – what does it mean for registered charities?
This blog explains how recent changes to the Trusts Act affect registered charities and what you need to know.